General Comment

I can manage my money just fine without the proposed rule. I have managed my money without the federal government's help ever since I earned my first nickel running errands for my mother. I continued to manage my money through every job I have had, and plan to manage my money the rest of my life. I do a better job than the government, as I stay within my budget. Stay out of my retirement plan, my savings, and my money. Thank you for your time.
